

Careers and Employability Fair: Career Talks and Presentations

Wednesday, 23rd October, 2024

	Eric Sunderland Lecture Theatre (MALT)	Lecture Room 5	Lecture Room 4	Lecture Room 3	Lecture Room 2
11:00-11:45	Tackling an Environmental Crisis?	Pathways to Education: Exploring Careers in Teaching	Graduate Business Start-Up Stories - Motivation and Methods	The Creative Industries and Beyond	Beyond the Gym: Careers in Sports Performance and Physiotherapy
12:00-12:45	Career Pathways in Brain and Behaviour	Multi-Agency Working Welsh medium session, translation available	Sustainable Career Journeys: Opportunities for Impact	Careers in the Heritage Sector	Master your Career through Postgraduate Study
13:00-13:45	Preparing for the World of Work: Essential Skills for Your Future	Welsh at Work: Celebration of Bilingualism Including presentation of Coleg Cymraeg Cenedlaethol Tystysgrifau Sgiliau Iaith. Welsh medium session, translation available	Innovations in Healthcare: The Future of Medicine and Health Sciences	From Passion to Profession: Careers Working with Animals	PhD Pathways: Advancing Your Academic and Professional Career
14:00-14:45	Working and Job Searching in the UK (for International Students)		Career Pathways in Health Sciences: Traditional and Emerging Roles	Digital Futures: Exploring Opportunities in the Digital World	Careers in Social Justice and Criminology
14:00-15:00	Study/Work Abroad Information Session – PL2 Pontio				